

NORTH AND WEST WALES MARINE CODE IN CARDIGAN BAY

STAY AT LEAST
100 METRES AWAY

Look out for wildlife

Marine mammals and birds at sea and seals and seabirds on the shore/cliffs. If you stop to watch, enjoy their company for a maximum of 10 minutes.

The Marine Code applies to all water users. 100 metres is approx the length of a football pitch.

Keep your distance

At least 100 metres away from the seabird colonies, rafting seabirds and marine mammals. Do not enter sea caves, or areas where seals or seabirds are present.

Reduce speed & sound

Within 300 metres proceed at 'no wake' speed and at no more than 5 knots.

Be aware

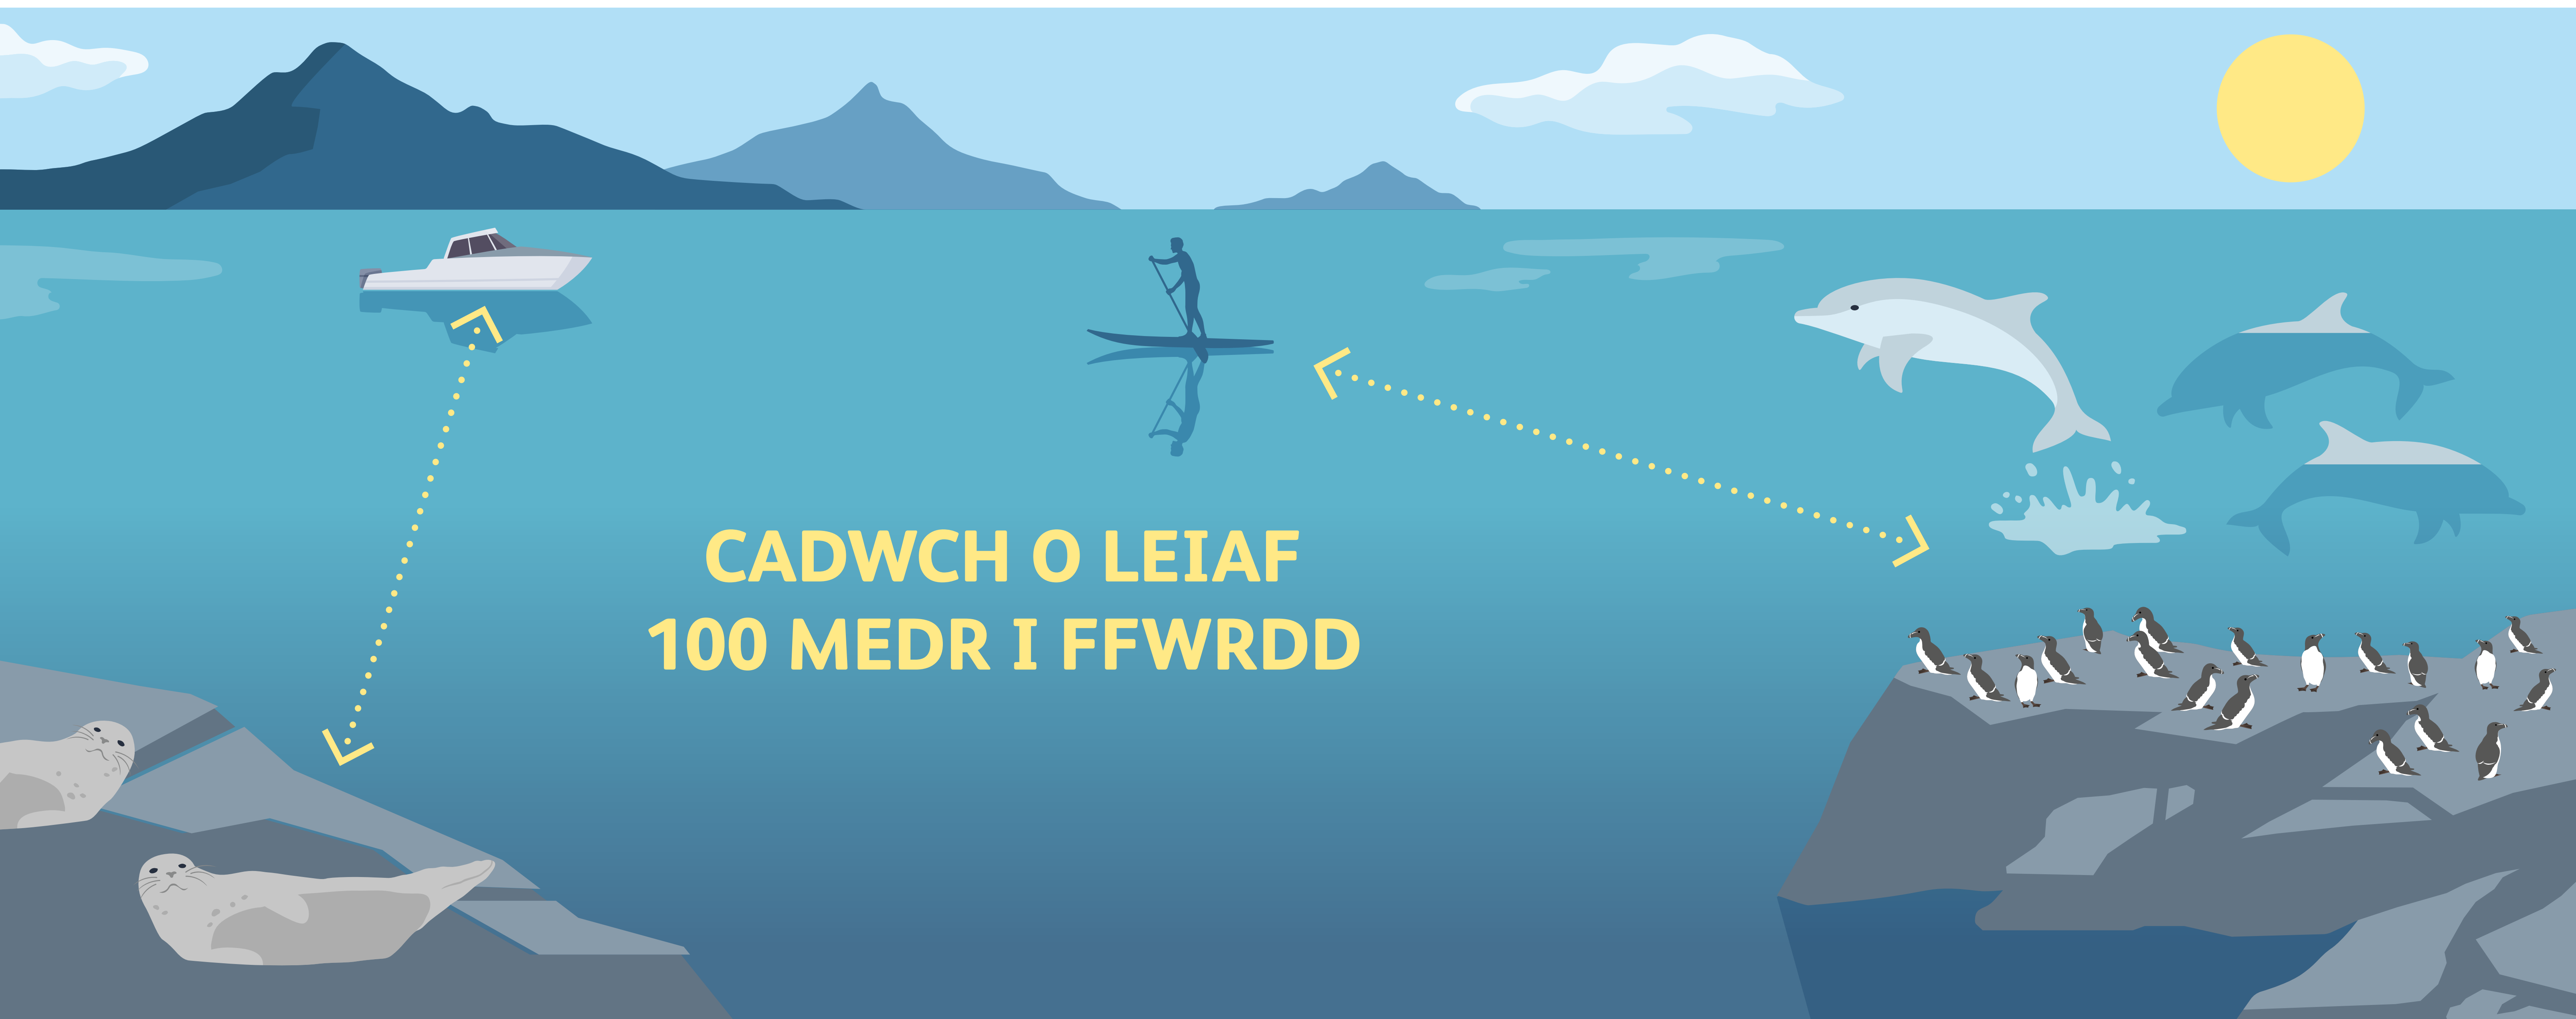

If an animal's behaviour changes in response to your presence, move away quietly.

To report disturbance to wildlife contact Dyfed Powys police on 101 or please visit: cardiganbaysac.org.uk/disturbance
